

IJICC welcomes submissions from all scientific and academic disciplines that have an interest in innovation, creativity, and change.

IJICC accepts the following types of papers:

1. Research Articles are expected to present a major advance. Research Articles include an abstract, an introduction, up to six figures or tables, sections with brief subheadings and a final reference list. Materials and Methods should usually be included in supplementary materials, which should also include information needed to support the paper's conclusions.
2. Reports present important new research results of broad significance. Reports should include an abstract, an introductory paragraph, up to four figures or tables, and about 30 references. Materials and Methods should usually be included in supplementary materials, which should also include information needed to support the paper's conclusions
3. Reviews describe new developments of interdisciplinary significance and highlight future directions. They include an abstract, an introduction that outlines the main theme, brief subheadings, and an outline of important unresolved questions. A maximum of 40 references is suggested. Most Reviews are solicited by the editors, but unsolicited submissions may also be considered.
4. Commentary includes analysis by experts on issues of interest to readers. With the exception of Letters and Comments, most items in these sections are commissioned by the editors, but unsolicited contributions are welcome.

Please note that this Journal does not publish articles which discuss, Race, Gender, Sex, Sexuality, Terrorism, and/or Violence.
